The UNSW Innovation Awards 2017
Rewarding ideas that change the world!

The UNSW Innovation Awards celebrate the diversity and value of innovation originating from UNSW staff, alumni and students. The competition is open to all UNSW current staff (academic and professional), alumni and students.

Nominate yourself or a standout colleague for your chance to win one of these prestigious awards!

Award Categories and Judging Criteria

Innovation is a combination of ingenuity, creativity and execution. Your innovation can be a product, a process, a technology, a market-based solution, or a service that has clear novelty and represents demonstrable benefits to the economy and society. Success in innovation is primarily driven by sustainable commercial and social impact.

The winners will be selected from UNSW current staff (academic and professional), alumni and student applications received.
